About us

Queen and Me is more than just a brand; it's a legacy passed down from a mom to her daughter, blending tradition with a modern twist.

Our mission goes beyond creating delightful culinary experiences. We're a team of food enthusiasts and innovators who tirelessly craft handcrafted products, ensuring every bite is a celebration.

Whether you're a traditionalist or a wild soul, our preservative-free offerings will cater to you revolutionize gift-giving.

It's not just about flavours for us; it's about embracing the essence of pure deliciousness with a purpose, turning imperfect, bruised fruit into delicious jam is not just about reducing waste, but also about embracing beauty in imperfection.

Our artisanal preserve is a celebration of nature's bounty, where every ingredient is handpicked and thoughtfully combined to ensure a delightful experience with every taste.

Everything is handmade in small batches and hand labelled in Cape Town.

The collection

JAMS

- Jam is typically made by cooking crushed or chopped fruits with sugar and pectin, a natural gelling agent found in fruit.
- It has a smooth texture with small fruit pieces or pulp suspended throughout the spread.
- Jams are usually made from a single type of fruit or a combination of fruits.

MARMALADES

- Marmalade is a type of fruit preserve made primarily from citrus fruits, such as oranges, lemons, or grapefruits.
- Marmalade has a slightly bitter taste due to the inclusion of the citrus peel.
- It has a translucent appearance with small, tender pieces of fruit.

PRESERVES

- Preserves are similar to jams but typically contain larger chunks or whole pieces of fruit, along with the fruit's juice and sugar.
- The fruit pieces are often visible and intact within the spread.
- Preserves are made by gently cooking the fruit and sugar mixture to retain the fruit's shape and texture.

CONDIMENTS

- Condiments are typically added to dishes either during cooking or served alongside the prepared meal to enhance its taste or complement its flavors.
